

EDITORIAL

This month sees the introduction of a few new features to Feedback which will make the magazine an even more interesting read and includes new topics which will appeal to a wider Audience.

We have Singer Songwriter Cheryl Beer writing a Community Music Column, which gives you a flavour of what takes place in Community projects throughout South Wales and what can be achieved through the medium of Music.

Another new column is the Country page introduced by local Country DJ, Neil Davies, which will include information on the Country scene in general as well as Album Reviews.

I am pleased to announce that we are reintroducing our cd Review page which Alyson Davies will writing for us each month. So any bands, Duo's or Solo acts out there who have new material they would like reviewed, send you cd to; Rimshot Promotions P O Box 1000 Swansea SA1 2BB and they will be passed on to Alyson.

Finally we have a guest writer Ted Robinson who will be writing on a variety of different music related topics in the coming months.

We hope you enjoy the new features and we would be pleased to receive your comments and suggestions on anything you would like to see included.

Lets keep the Music Live

WORLD VS WORLD

A band who have one of the more stranger names, and I've heard a few, but one we hope you will remember for their music.

The band consists of Kirk Bowen ex "Against the Grain" on Lead Guitar and Vocals, Damian Harris formerly with "Karmas" on drums and James Morris completes the line up on Bass Guitar.

The boys got together in January 2007 and started to gig throughout the area from April that year. They style their music on the bands who influence them, so expect to hear the touches of Greenday, Nirvana, China Drum and Radiohead in their material

They have recently completed their second EP "Six Degrees of Separation" and are actively promoting it at venues anywhere between Llanelli and Port Talbot. The EP has had an airing on both Nation Radio and Radio Tircoed and has created some interest.

Catch the boys at The Masons in Llanelli on November 6th.
